Council of Chief State School Officers Renews Lease at National Guard Building

Donohoe Real Estate Services Represents Landlord in Long Term Renewal

WASHINGTON, DC—May 18, 2011— Council of Chief State School Officers (CCSSO), worked with Donohoe/Corfac International to renew its lease totaling 22,456 square feet at One Massachusetts Avenue, NW, The National Guard Building.

The Council of Chief State School Officers is a nonpartisan, nationwide, nonprofit organization of public officials who head departments of elementary and secondary education in the states, the District of Columbia, the Department of Defense Education Activity, and five U.S. extra-state jurisdictions. CCSSO provides leadership, advocacy, and technical assistance on major educational issues. The Council seeks member consensus on major educational issues and expresses their views to civic and professional organizations, federal agencies, Congress, and the public.

Bert Donohoe and Don Konz represented the Landlord the National Guard Association of the United States. Ben Meisel of Akridge represented the Tenant.

“We are pleased we could help provide continuity for all parties involved by renewing the lease with CCSSO for the long term,” said Bert Donohoe, senior vice president at Donohoe/Corfac International.

Built in 1990, the 175,000 square-foot building is headquarters for the National Guard Association. It is located at One Massachusetts Ave, two blocks from the Capitol and one block from Union Station.

Donohoe/ Corfac International is a full service real estate company representing tenants and landlords since 1884.
