Donohoe Facilitates Expansion, New Location for Two DC Non-profits

CNFA and NASBP sign new long term leases in District's Central Business District

WASHINGTON, DC—September 7, 2010—Donohoe Corfac International recently completed leases for two non-profits in DC's Central Business District (CBD).

Donohoe represented CNFA, an international agricultural development organization, in the lease of 14,199 square feet at 1828 L Street for a ten-year term. The new lease is an expansion of the organization's current space.

Additionally, Donohoe represented the National Association of Surety Bond Producers (NASBP) for 4,902 square feet at 1140 19th Street for a seven-year lease term. NASBP moved from 1828 L Street.

Donohoe's Bert Donohoe, senior vice president, and Don Konz, associate vice president, worked with Tom Hilley of Transwestern at 1828 L Street and Curtis Paul of Newmark, Knight, Frank at 1140 19th Street.

The Donohoe Corporate Services Team of Bert Donohoe and Don Konz has represented six non-profit clients totaling over 43,000 square feet in the CBD in the past year.

"Assisting non-profits with their real estate requirements is a substantial part of our business," said Bert Donohoe. "We accommodate their unique needs to help them secure the right location, type and size of space they need to achieve their goals."

Donohoe Corfac International is a full service real estate company representing tenants and landlords since 1884.
