CRP, Inc. Moving To Bonifant Building

Donohoe Real Estate Services represented Landlord in new lease

WASHINGTON, DC—July 9, 2010— Silver Spring’s Bonifant Building has a new tenant, CRP Inc. Donohoe Corfac International represented the Landlord in securing a five year, three month lease totaling 5,991 square feet.

The 40,762 square-foot building was constructed in 1987 and renovated in 2007. The 1110 Bonifant Building is located directly adjacent to the Metro and MARC rail stations in the heart of Silver Spring.

Dean Drewyer and Matt O’Connell, both associate vice presidents at Donohoe represented the Landlord. Diana Davis and David Cravedi of Ezra represented the Tenant.

CRP, Inc is a minority female-owned and operated small business that provides comprehensive research, training, workforce and organization development evaluation and other specialized professional services to government, industry and other organizational systems.

“CRP is the right fit for this space and we’re pleased to help them settle in to this great Silver Spring location,” said Dean Drewyer.

Donohoe Corfac International is a full service real estate company representing tenants and landlords since 1884.
