IT Firm Expands Office in Evening Star Building

Donohoe Real Estate Services represents David Hale and Associates in new lease.

WASHINGTON, DC—August 27, 2010— David Hale and Associate's (DHA) federal and commercial clients can find it in a new spacious office suite thanks to Donohoe Corfac International who represented the IT firm in a new lease agreement.

David Hale and Associates moved in to a 6,240 square-foot office space from another 1,420 square-foot space in the coveted Evening Star building in April. The firm's rapid growth precipitated the move to the turnkey office suite. The new space will allow DHA to add new hires as the firm grows.

Leonard Howell, LEED AP, leasing agent at DRES represented DHA in its move within the building. He negotiated terms of the seven-year agreement with the Landlord's representatives, Tripp Howell and Amy Bowser of Jones Lang LaSalle.

"This location was unbeatable and the high-end space was perfect," said Leonard Howell. "All DHA had to do was walk in and they were ready to go, plus they can literally look out the window and see their client."

Donohoe Corfac International is a full service real estate company representing tenants and landlords since 1884.
