Eagle Publishing and McLeod, Watkinson & Miller Renew Leases at National Guard Building

Donohoe Real Estate Services represents Landlord in two long term renewals

WASHINGTON, DC—June 29, 2010— In two separate transactions, Eagle Publishing and McLeod, Watkinson & Miller, Attorneys at Law, worked with Donohoe Corfac International to renew leases totaling 39,000 square feet. Donohoe represented the Landlord, the National Guard Association of the United States.

Eagle Publishing, one of America's leaders in the public-policy publishing arena, renewed 25, 933 square feet for a term of eight years.

McLeod, Watkinson & Miller, a law firm with experienced, seasoned attorneys working in corporate and business arenas, expanded their space to 13,057 square feet renewing for a term of seven years.

Built in 1990, the 200,000 square-foot building is headquarters for the National Guard Association. It is located at One Massachusetts Ave, two blocks from the Capitol and one block from Union Station.

Bert Donohoe and Don Konz represented the Landlord. Terry Amling of Jones Land LaSalle represented McLeod, Watkinson & Miller and Petch Gibbons of Cushman Wakefield represented Eagle Publishing.

“We’re happy we could help provide continuity for all parties involved by renewing the leases for the next several years,” said Bert Donohoe, senior vice president at Donohoe.

Donohoe Corfac International is a full service real estate company representing tenants and landlords since 1884.
