Nomadic Display Renews at Virginia Location

Donohoe Real Estate Services represents Nomadic in 5-year lease extension.

WASHINGTON, DC—September 28, 2010— Nomadic Display, the world’s leading producer of custom modular and trade show displays, will continue to make its home at 5617 Industrial Drive in Springfield, Virginia thanks to Donohoe Corfac International, who represented the company in a lease renewal agreement.

The 132,109 square-foot space provides manufacturing space as well as a large showroom, where Nomadic showcases current and past show displays.

“Nomadic through Donohoe initially signed a ten-year lease which expires August 31st, 2011,” explained Bryan Gray, associate vice president at Donohoe Real Estate Services. “Both Nomadic and AMB recognized the opportunity of an early lease renewal.”

Chuck Matincheck, Donohoe senior vice president and Gray worked with the Landlord, AMB Property Corporation, and broker, KLNB, to secure a very competitive rate to obtain their renewal.

“Throughout the entire process Donohoe exhibited the highest level of professionalism and without question, always acted in the best interest of Nomadic,” said Pat Goeke, president of Nomadic Structures, Inc.

Donohoe Corfac International is a full service real estate company representing tenants and landlords since 1884.
